CIRCULAR

There are elected Unions of Workmen (Group 'C' & 'D') in every organization and such unions are recognized by the Management as per the provision of Trade Union Act. These unions participate in various discussions/negotiations with the Management for betterment of the working condition & wages etc. For this purpose, the membership verification/election for the union are conducted as per the rules from time to time.

Of late, it has been observed that some RMs have issued transfer orders in respect of Group 'C' & 'D' officials working under them when membership verification process for union elections was taking place though the transfer orders were issued as per CWC transfer policy/guidelines.

All RMs are therefore, advised to avoid to issue such orders when the election process is on.
